User Stories Document

Caramon's User Stories

- 1.) As a student, I want to understand what makes a laptop perform well so that I can make informed purchasing decisions for equipment.
- 2.) As a computer enthusiast, I want to be able to view a given device's specifications to ensure that it fits my needs.
- 3.) As a consumer, I want to view basic details and thumbnails of multiple devices at once in catalogue form, so that I can assess multiple options at once.
- 4.) As a user, I want to be able to save certain devices so that I can easily return to them later in a different session.

Grace's User Stories

- 1.) As a grandparent, I want a place to find the definitions of terms I'm unfamiliar with so that I know what kind of laptop to get my granddaughter.
- 2.) As a Computer Science undergraduate, I want to search for a specific laptop by its model number so that I can make sure it suits my programming needs.
- 3.) As a person who likes to play video games, I want to open two different tabs so that I can compare the graphics of two different laptops.
- 4.) As a starting software developer, I want to search for a laptop by its release date so that I can find an older laptop that supports legacy software.

Steven's User Stories

- 1.) As a college student, I want to be able to search for and locate a laptop so that I can find a laptop that has specifications that are compatible with the programs needed to complete my degree.
- 2.) As a tech-beginner, I want to display descriptions within SpecEffect when clicking over complex tech-vocabulary so that I can understand what each specification means without needing prior experience.
- 3.) As a busy desk worker, I want to filter by my need so I can find a laptop in SpecEffect without losing quality time that could be used elsewhere.

- 4.) As a customer, I want to view a picture of the laptop in SpecEffect to see the shape and size of what I am potentially purchasing.

Eliot's User Stories

1. As a parent, I want to search for a laptop with a small screen size so that the laptop I get is suitable for my child's schoolwork.
2. As a gamer, I want to find a laptop that has specifications with good graphics so that I can get a device I know can play the newest AAA titles.
3. As a consumer, I want to view a page of information about a laptop I'm considering buying so that I know whether or not the laptop is good for basic office tasks.
4. As a user, I want to filter laptops by price so I can find a laptop that fits my budget.
