Caramon's User Stories
1.) As a student, I want to understand what makes a laptop perform well so that I can make informed purchasing decisions for equipment.
2.) As a computer enthusiast, I want to be able to view a given device's specifications to ensure that it fits my needs.
3.) As a consumer, I want to view basic details and thumbnails of multiple devices at once in catalogue form, so that I can assess multiple options at once.
4.) As a user, I want to be able to save certain devices so that I can easily return to them later in a different session.

Grace's User Stories
1.) As a grandparent, I want a place to find the definitions of terms I'm unfamiliar with so that I know what kind of laptop to get my granddaughter.
2.) As a Computer Science undergraduate, I want to search for a specific laptop by its model number so that I can make sure it suits my programming needs.
3.) As a person who likes to play video games, I want to open two different tabs so that I can compare the graphics of two different laptops.
4.) As an aspiring retro device collector, I want to search for a laptop by its release date so that I can find what the oldest laptops are.

Steven's User Stories
1.) As a college student, I want to locate a laptop in SpecEffect by utilizing the search function that will be applicable to complete the dedicated degree in my major without technical incompatibility.
2.) As a tech-beginner, I want to display descriptions within SpecEffect, when clicking on complex tech-vocabulary because of my lack of knowledge.
3.) As a busy desk worker , I want to filter by my need to find a laptop in SpecEffect without losing quality time that could be used elsewhere.
4.) As a customer, I want to view a picture of the laptop in SpecEffect to see the shape and size of what I am potentially purchasing.

Eliot's User Stories
1. As a parent, I want to search for a laptop suitable for my child's schoolwork.
2. As a gamer, I want to find a laptop that can play the newest AAA titles.
3. As a consumer, I want to know whether a laptop I'm considering buying is good for basic office tasks.
4. As a user, I want to filter by price to find a laptop that fits my budget.
